HUSBAND - Richard Henry Douglass SORREL-474

Admitted to sophomore class, Princeton, 12 Nov 1841. Alum record "Clio...from D.C." indicates may have been admitted from Washington altho Savannah given as home. "Clio" indicates membership in Cliosophic Society, literary & debating organization which, like similar ones in other colleges, "were the main focus of undergraduate life [in] 19th century....Self-governing youth groups..., they were...colleges within colleges. They constructed & taught their own curricula...& enforced elaborate codes of conduct." RHD apparently encountered latter because 1 Dec 1841 he was "Suspended 1 wk -- intoxication." At end of his 1st semester, 28 Feb 1842, he was "Directed to return home." [All from Princeton Univ Archives.] He had just turned 17 when he was expelled, apparently for misconduct; prob drinking. This did not bode well for his future. But what higher education had he received to warrant admission to advanced standing at age 16?

1850 Census Savannah: listed in father's household, age 25, "bank officer." Ad in Americus, GA, newspaper 14 Sept 1854 identifies him as "Agent, Planters' Bank Agency...prepared to do business by October 1st." This appears to coincide w/ his impending marriage:

F.Sorrel record: "Richard Henry Douglass Sorrel was married on the 13th October 1854 at Atlanta, Georgia, in the Presbyterian Church of that City by the Rev/d J.F.Dubose to Mrs Martha Elizabeth Gordon Beall (sic) daughter of General John Gordon of Georgia." "Macon Messenger" 25 Oct 1854 contained same info, referring to groom as "Col.R.H.D.Sorrel of Americus [GA]."

1st son b in Americus 21 Oct 1855.

9 Mar 1856: John W Gordon transfers 1843 Deed of Trust for 20 slaves (cf Martha E Gordon note) to RHDS. On 7 Jan had deeded 1288 acres in Wharton Co + slaves to Martha. [Both in Abstract of Title to Sorrel Plantation in file.]

1857 Wharton Co Tax Roll: RHDS appeared for 1st time, owning 1662 acres val at $19,944; 65 Negroes val at $39,000; total val property $61,894. Did not pay poll tax, suggesting family not resident in TX, prob living in Vineville.

1857 "Texas Almanac" lists "Richard H. Sorrel, Wharton Co. Texas Ranger."

15 Feb 1858: Wm Rives (husb of Sarah Jane Gordon) sells 1315 acres which he had purchased from Jesse Gordon in 1856 for $19,750 to RHDS for $100 in transaction witnessed by John W Gordon. [This transaction suggests RHD & Martha were again being favored by gift in which her father had a hand; i.e., presumably JWG made up difference to Rives between selling price ($100) & actual value of property. By this time young couple had been given Hutchings property in Jones Co, GA, a total of 2609 acres in TX, slaves & other property for out-of-pocket "considerations" of only $200. (JMF)]

14 July 1858: RHDS buys 8 acres fronting on Forsyth Rd in Vineville for $4500 from Robt Bowman. [NB: Copies of this indenture & all others mentioned below on Vineville property to final sale in 1887 were made by MWF & are in RHDS file.]

[Just inside door of Genealogy & Local History Section of Washington Memorial Library in Macon is print of a birdseye view of Macon in 1872. Monroe St was last street on edge of Macon. Forsythe St crossed it just below a small stream & extended into open country, where it met Washington St at an acute angle and both streets ended. (This was 14 yrs after Forsythe property purchased but, in view of war & depression during those yrs, this is prob what Macon looked like in 1858.] We believe 8 acres of Sorrel property, w/ its 206 ft frontage on Forsythe St, was just beyond that little stream. Since the house was still there in 1872, it may be shown on that print. We must return & look.]

[In 1997, JMF & JGF attempted to locate this land. They believe those 8 acres are now occupied by modern, high-rise St Paul Apts on Forsythe St b/n Arlington & Monroe. Cf Sorrel/Gordon/Sanford Notes, Part 4, pp 26-7, for more info & rough map.]

1859 Wharton Co Tax Roll: owned 1662 acres now valued at $33,240; no. of slaves had incr to 74, valued at $53,200. Total value of property $88,615.

21 Dec 1859: RHDS secures $11,750 loan from "Jno. Boston" of Savannah to be repaid by 1 Jan 1861.

1860 Census Vineville Dist, Macon PO, Bibb Co, GA, p 150 (enumerated 5 Aug): Richard H.D.Sorrel 34, planter, value real estate $132,000, value personal property $140,800; Martha E. 32; J.Gordon 4 (all b GA); Francis R.D. 3, b AL; Douglass 1, b GA. RHD had obviously prospered in 6 yrs since his marriage; much of wealth was in Martha's plantation & slaves in TX. (1860 Wharton Co Tax Roll: RHD owned 1662 acres worth $41,550; 76 Negroes valued at $67,260.) Area of Vineville where they lived was affluent: other 5 heads of households on same census pg were broker, planter, merchant & 2 bankers. Total value real estate & personal property of all 6 households $619,000, of which $273,000 Sorrel's.

1 Jan 1861: RHDS defaults on loan from Jno Boston; father Francis assumes obligation. On Oct 14 RHDS in debt to Robt Bowman; Vineville land mortgaged to him as security against payment.

Wharton Co Tax Rolls [TX County Tax Rolls, Series 1, Roll 644, TX State Library, Austin] show RHD Sorrel owned following acreage & slaves (listed as "Negroes") valued at: 1859: 1662 acres, 74 slaves, $88,651; 1860: 1662 acres, 76 slaves, $100,900; 1861: 1214 acres, 120 slaves, $121,000; 1862: 2222 acres, 138 slaves, $130,805; 1863: 1936 acres, 140 slaves, $137,500; 1864: 1936 acres, 147 slaves, $142,870.

[Cf "Civil War in Texas & Its Aftermath" & Sorrel/Gordon/Sanford Notes Parts 1 & 2 for details on the following.] RHD Sorrel began his Civil War military duty as a pvt, Home Guards, Reserve Cavalry Co, Wharton County, Texas State Troops, in July 1861. Company was commissioned 21 Aug 1861, but only 1 muster roll exists. War was remote from TX & unit was prob inactive or disbanded. On 30 Jan 1863, he enlisted in Wharton as a pvt in "Co. of 3 mo State Troops, 22nd Brigade, unattached CSA." This company of 68 men was "mostly undrilled," had few arms, no uniforms, & was "allowed to return home to subsist themselves w/out pay & to drill weekly until called into active service." Only company rolls were dated 30 Jan & 28 Feb 1863. Men in it may have been mustered into Confederate Army, but this is not certain. TX state govt did not cooperate well w/ Confederate conscription laws.

About Sept 1863 Capt JR Baylor formed an Independent Company, Texas Cavalry, called "Ladies' Rangers" because it was equipped by patriotic ladies of Houston & Galveston. It was sent to operate against Indians on TX borders. RHD Sorrel was elected a captain 15 Dec 1863 & succeeded Baylor in command of this Company. "Capt Sorrel's Independent Co" prob continued to operate against Indians until it was incorporated in Griffin's Battalion, Texas Infantry as Co G on 30 May 1864. That order appears to have been revoked & his Co then served in Terry's Regt, Texas Cavalry, prob on "commissary duty" in TX. Co was then transferred to Col GW Baylor's Regt (also known as 2nd Regt, Arizona Brigade) as Co I, w/ Sorrel still in command, sometime around March 1865. He served out rest of War in this capacity, signing his parole as POW (copy in file) in July 1865 as "captain commanding Co I, Baylor's Regt." When War ended Regt was at Houston.

Except for possible action against Indians, there is no evidence any of the above units saw major combat while the Ladies' Rangers were attached to them.

WW Mackall Jr, in "A Son's Recollection of his Father," p 221, states that in July 1864 Gen Mackall "joined his family, who at that time were living in Vineville...in a house belonging to [RHDS]...Here Gen JE Johnston & his wife & the Misses Wigfall, the daughters of Sen Wigfall of TX, came to live with us." Mackall family lived there until Macon surrendered 20 April 1865.

No military action occurred in Wharton Co during the War, but it was devastated nevertheless. Cotton production had fallen precipitously because the only market was to smugglers. (They bought it at 6 cents/lb, carted it to Brownsville (2 mo trip), & sold it in Mexico for 60 cents/lb.) Cattle had been allowed to roam free & had gone wild. Planters from further E had brought their slaves to Colorado valley to avoid liberating Federal troops. Now all slaves were free citizens, outnumbering white population. And w/ their freedom had gone most of RHD & Martha'a wealth. The estate valued at $143,000 yr b/4 (both had been named as owners) was worth only $27,000 in 1865 Tax Roll. Acreage had also decreased from 1936 to original 1660 acres.

A company of black Federal troops occupied Matagorda 1865-7, but there was little law & order. Law officers, many of them black, were often ineffective against whites whose world had literally turned upside-down. Violence, always part of a culture which placed so much importance on "honor," became endemic. In 3 yrs following War, 1035 killings were reported in TX! [Cf "Legacy of Violence,"...Death & Disorder on American Frontier," "Historic Matagorda Co" under "Background" in Sorrel file.]

19 Feb 1866: RHDS' father, Francis Sorrel "of Chatham Co" [Savannah] purchases same Vineville property, buying it from Thurston R Bloom for $3526.

7 June 1866: RHDS, still in debt to his father for payment of defaulted note to Jno Boston, assigns most of his land in Texas to Francis Sorrel "for better securing" to him of "faithful payment of debt to which RHD Sorrel...justly owes." Mortgage would be void if RHDS repaid $11,750 debt to Boston. JMF says not clear is debt ever paid, but it was not among assests listed in Francis Sorrel's estate after he died in 1870.

25 Aug: 1866 Wharton Co Tax Roll said RHD owned 1660 acres worth $25,905.

6 Nov: RHDS sued by James Dean. Land in Vineville he originally bought from Robt Bowman seized by sheriff & sold at auction for $400. Apparently his father had given it to him after purchasing it 9 mo b/4, altho do not have record of this.

20 Nov 1866 Savannah newspaper quoted by JMF: "A Galveston paper announces the arrival there of Major Sorrel who has entered into contracts with 500 negro families, under the sanction & recommendation of the Bureau of this state, to remove them to TX. Major Sorrel informs the editor that there are thousands of the best laboring freemen in GA who are anxious to enter into such contracts as he has made, and move to TX; that large numbers of them in northern & middle GA, who are in a destitute condition owing to failure of crops, are anxious to secure homes where they can obtain provisions by their labor & make themselves & their families comfortable."

Wharton Co Tax Rolls show impact of emancipation & devastated Southern economy on RHD Sorrel & MA Sorrel (both usually named from 1865 on): 1865: 1660 acres valued at $27,025; 1866: 1661 acres, $25,945; 1867: 1660 acres, $30,216; 1868 (missing); 1869: 3867 acres, $4,183; 1870: 1660 acres, $3,892!

1866 & 1868: Various documents describe RHDS as being "of Chatham Co." [JMF speculates that, having assigned his plantation to his father & having had at least some of his Vineville property seized by the sherriff, RHDS spent most of his time w/ his father in Savannah or in promoting his ill-starred scheme of transporting Negro families to TX.] He prob moved his family to Vineville during these yrs. Dau Aminta died there in Mar 1866; Martha's father died there in May 1868. Oct 1868 letter from Francis Sorrel [copy in file] states Martha, Marcial & Moxley were staying w/ him in Savannah while RHD was in TX.

30 July 1868: Indenture from Francis Sorrel to son G Moxley in which (for $5) "in consideration of the natural love & affection" he had for "the Wife & Children of his Son RH Douglass Sorrel," he assigned tract in Vineville "fronting on Forsyth Rd 206 ft...containing 8 acres" in trust to G Moxley for benefit of "Martha E. Sorrel the wife of [RHDS] for & during the term of her natural life free from the debts, contracts or control of the said [RHDS] or of any husband with whom she may hereafter intermarry." [Bibb Co Deed Book P, p 368 (deed copied by MWF was from Chatham Co--perhaps duplicate?)] [This was same property Francis had bought 19 Feb 1866, prob "conveyed" to RHDS, & was then sold at sheriff's auction 6 Nov 1866. Francis must have bought it back from the man who bought it for $400. JMF considers this & following will proof that "even his own Father considered [RHDS] somewhat improvident & undependable."]

19 Sept 1868: Francis Sorrel signs will providing his estate be divided among his 8 living children but stipulating that "In consequence of the pecuniary embarrassments of my son [RHDS]...I do hereby direct that the share of my Estate which would fall to him, should he survive me, shall be held IN TRUST by my Executors...for the sole use & benefit of the children of my son Douglass, living at the time of my death, & not subject to the debts, contracts, or control of my said son..." G. Moxley & Alexander Claxton were named executors.

14 June 1869: RHDS files bankruptcy papers in TX. 6 July: "RHDS, Bankrupt," places 353 acres of land from Lot 3 in Wharton Co ("being part of a tract of 553 acres on which [he] now resides") up for public auction in Galveston at order of Register of Bankruptcy. Land purchased for $24.75 by highest bidder, Martha E. Sorrel! [Wharton Co Deed Vol B-2, p 760]

1869 Wharton Co Tax Rolls: RHD Sorrel owned 3867 acres valued at only $4,183. Cannot explain discrepancy w/ above paragraph, but this shows how precipitously land values fell in yrs after War. Increased acreage may include land he was managing for sis-in-law Sarah Jane Rives.

30 Mar 1870: Letter from Francis Sorrel to son Frank mentions "Douglass...& his whole family were in the enjoyment of health which is better than good crops with which he has not been blessed. He writes despondingly."

5 May 1870: His father d in Savannah, age 77.

1870 Wharton Co Tax Rolls: RHD Sorrel (only name listed) owned 1660 acres now valued at only $3892.

1871: According to family lore, RHD was in Galveston purchasing supplies when he became ill after eating tainted fish. He d shortly thereafter, prob back at the plantation. He was only 46. Exact date uncertain; one given from unsigned paper in MWF files, attributed to her sis Madeleine.

Letter from Frank D. Sorrel, Sr. in JMF files reported that, according to his uncle Marcial Sorrel "who d in 1952 at age 92, John W. Gordon, Jr, Gordon Sorrel, Francis Sorrel & Richard Henry Douglass Sorrel were all buried in the old abandoned cemetery [on the Sorrel Plantation]." Marcial & his bro Douglass once considered moving bodies to Wharton Cem, but "someone had taken lots of tombstones," graves couldn't be identified, so bodies left where they were. In Oct 1992 Freymann bros found this cemetery. Only bricks outlining graves remained; no tombstones. Cf p 4, JMF notes for Oct 23-29 1992 (in file) for exact location.

Not clear how much of RHDS's debt to his father remained unpaid when Francis d, or what other "pecuniary embarrassments" may have remained when RHDS d yr later. However, he was not only member of family in debt after War. Cf Martha Gordon note for details of G Moxley's & Alexander Claxton's insolvency.

WIFE - Martha Elizabeth (Bell) GORDON-475

B date est from 1850 Census (ages 24-25--counted 2x = 1825-26), 1860 Census (32 = 1828), 1870 Census (44 = 1826), 1880 Census (53 = 1827). Since younger sis Sarah b in Dec 1827, Martha could not have been b after Jan 1827. Therefore believe 1825-6 most likely. JMF thinks could have been earlier: 1824. Cf note on older sis Mary Ann (711) that might prove Martha was b b/4 Oct 1825.

She was known to her sisters as "Patsey." According to daugh Moxley, attended "Sacred Heart Convent in NY" (no other evidence for this per JMF).

21 Nov 1843 m Col Bennett Bell in Jones Co, GA. She was abt 17-19; he was at least 14 yrs her senior (abt 33). May have lived 1st yr or so in Clinton, historic village, now well preserved, just across highway from town of Gray. The Flewellen-Johnson-Bennett Bell House is said to still be standing there.

29 Dec 1843: JWG deeded 20 slaves to Chas Hutchings on condition "services, earnings & gains" of slaves go to benefit of Martha & any children she may have "w/o control or intermedling" of her husb.

Abt 1847-8 moved w/ husb to Baker Co. (He served in Legislature from there 1849-50; resigned Feb 1850.)

B/n Feb & Aug 1850 Martha & Bennett Bell follow JWG & most of his family to new home in Wharton Co, TX. They were settled in dwelling next to JWG by Sept.

1850 Census Wharton Co, TX, enumerated 13-21 Sept, p 326, dwelling 82: B. Bell 40, farmer; M.A.Bell 25; G.W.Presswood, 24, printer; all b GA. (John W Gordon's dwelling was #81). She was also counted in father's household in Matagorda 9 Sept, age 25, w/o husband (cf J.W.Gordon notes).

1851 Wharton Co record from JMF (Slave Holder Census?) lists Bennett Bell owning 10 slaves + 26 more "for his wife." 1852 lists "Bennett Bell & wife" owning 24; 1853 lists "Bennett Bell for Martha Bell" owning 26.

Bennett Bell & Mrs Martha Bell appear for 1st time on Wharton Co Tax Rolls in 1852. Neither own land. Bells owns 9 Negroes; Martha 24. In 1853 he still owned 9; she 26.

12 Oct 1853 Bennett Bell d, prob of wounds received in altercation over card game w/ bros-in-law & friends 4 days before. Small size of his estate (cf his note) indicates most slaves (abt 17) held in Martha's own name. Apparently Bell had been farming father-in-law's land; John W Gordon didn't divide his land until 1856 (cf below).

April 1854: Martha leaves resort near Little Rock, AR, following lengthy (10 wk?) stay w/ her father, bro JWG Jr, sis Camilla. Proceeds to New Orleans & Montgomery, AL. Sometime later goes on to Indian Springs, Georgia resort 132 mi NW of old home in Haddock, where she meets RHD Sorrel. [Latter family lore from daugh Moxley.]

15 Oct 1854 m RHD Sorrel in Atlanta. Cf charming letter to her sister Sarah Jane Rives 29 Jan 1855 reporting proudly that her new husband is "more of a man than [someone] took him to be" & that she is already pregnant [typescript in Sorrel file].

21 Oct 1855, birth of 1st child (John Gordon "Frenchie"). Known RHD working in Americus, Sumpter Co, in Oct 1854, & he is referred to in Jan 1856 deed as "RHD Sorrel of Sumpter Co, GA." Therefore believe son born in Americus. However Mercer U records give b place Macon.

7 Jan 1856 father deeds Martha Elizabeth Sorrel 1280 acres (Lot 4) on E side of Colorado River in Wharton Co & number of slaves. 9 Mar 1856 Deed of Trust, originally dated 29 Dec 1843, in which J.W.Gordon deeded 20 slaves to Chas. Hutchings "upon trust that he...will...permit...Martha E. Bell...to have...the services, earnings & gains of the said negro slaves for her benefit...independent of & without contol or intermedling of said husband for & during her natural life..." transferred to RHD Sorrel. [Both in Abstract of Title to the Sorrel Plantation in file.]

Abt 1857: 2nd child (Francis) b in AL (possibly at home of sis Sarah Jane Rives or of her father, both of whom believed to have been living in Montgomery then).

14 July 1858: husb buys land in Vineville district of Macon. By this time she & husb also own property in Jones Co & 2609 acres in TX. 27 Oct 1858: 3rd child (RHD Jr) b Vineville. 27 July 1860: 4th child (Marcial) b there. 1860 Census, enumerated 5 Aug, documents considerable wealth (cf husb's note). Mar 1861: 5th child (Aminta, named after RHD older sis) b Vineville.

April 1861: outbreak of Civil War. She & children almost certainly lived out War on Texas plantation. Husb was in TX to enlist in home guard in July 1861 & continuously while in service Jan 1863-July 1865. 1870 & 1880 Censuses prove that 6th child (Moxley) was b in TX, almost certainly in 1864. (If b in 1865, both census-takers would have been told in July the ages Moxely would not reach until Oct: 5 & 15.) Thus Moxley was prob conceived in Jan 1864. Since Trans-Mississippi Dept of Confederacy cut off from east after fall of Vicksburg 4 July 1863, there was no way Martha could have gone to Vineville home after early 1863. Known family was back in Vineville in Mar 1866 because daugh Aminta d there. Whole family prob lived there 1866-69. Letter [in JMF files] to "Dear Mot" in GA from RHDS in TX in Oct 1869 shows she was still there then.

May 1868: Father d at Vineville. Bro Jesse d sometime in 1866-7; said to have drowned. 1869: Bro John W Gordon Jr murdered in TX. May 1870: Father-in-law d at Savannah. 1871: husb d at home shortly after eating tainted fish in Galveston.

Cf RHD Sorrel note for debts left after his death. However he was not only member of family in debt following War. In late 1860s (Moye didn't record date) MA & G[ordon] Sorrel sued JW & F[annie] Sorrel, prob for debt default. [Wharton Co Dist Court Minute Book D, p 68]. In claim Martha made against estate of Francis Sorrel in 1879, mention made of promisory note for $1250 made by Claxton Sorrel & payable to G. Moxley Sorrel dated 27 July 1868 & payable 3 yrs later. Argued that this sum + interest was owed by ACS & GMS to children of RHDS because they had been named trustees of the children, but debt had remained unpaid because both men had "for 4 or 5 yrs been insolvent."

Cf RHD Sorrel notes for unsettled conditions in Wharton Co in post-War period. Family lore tells of former slaves frightened by Ku Klux Klan seeking shelter on Martha'a veranda. Yet lists of "Freedmen" in Wharton Co Tax Rolls 1866-70 show NO ex-slaves who took name Sorrel, while many took Gordon, Sanford & Rives as family names. Significance?

Wharton Co Tax Rolls show continued plight of anyone trying to run a plantation in the post-war perior w/o free labor & cotton prices low:

ibid: 1871: JL(S?) Rives, agent for Mrs ME Sorrel: 1660 acres worth $8660.

ibid: 1872: JH Rogers, agent for Mrs ME Sorrel: 1660 acres worth $8504.

ibid: 1874: Mrs ME Sorrel, agent for Gordon Sorrel: 1660 acres worth $4060. [Now 19, eldest son Gordon had apparently become owner.] NB: 1873 & 1875 records missing.

By 1875 she was having difficulty holding plantation together. On 8 June 1875 she negotiated 1 yr loan for $2000 at 18%, offering 700 acres of Lot 4 as security [Wharton Co D/T Records, vol B, p 561]. 17 April 1876 negotiates new 2 yr loan for $2000 at 18% using rest of Lot 4 & 714 acres of Lot 3 as security [ibid, vol C-1, p 249].

31 Jan 1876: Eldest son "Frenchie" murdered, prob by half-bro of John W Gordon Jr's widow. Aug 1876: 2nd son Francis d of jaundice. 15 May 1877: sis Sarah Jane d at Montgomery.

Wharton Co Tax Roll, 1876: Mrs ME Sorrel owned 1660 + 1144 acres, total value $12,645. [Did not review tax rolls beyond this yr.]

22 May 1878: WW Lipscomb sues Martha for non-payment of 1st debt above. She fails to appear at trial; Court orders Martha to pay Lipscomb $782.31 + 8% on $67.17 thereof & 12% on $715.14 thereof until debt paid, + costs [ibid, vol C, p 165].

4 July 1879: "In consideration of...$5000...which I have...appropriated to pay & discharge encumbrances upon the property hereinafter conveyed," Martha conveyed to son RHD Jr all 1280 acres of Lot 4 & 1329 acres of Lot 3 "upon trust for use & benefit of RHD Sorrel Jr, Marcial & Moxley." Property was disencumbered except for $1733.43 still due Lipscomb on 700 acres of Lot 4 [ibid, vol D, p 175]. Legal papers in Savannah (per JMF) suggest this $5000 came from settlement of estate of Francis Sorrel.

1880 Census, Georgia, Bibb Co, Vineville Dist (enum 4 June): Martha E Sorrel, 53; Marcial, 18, b GA; Moxley, 15, b TX. Eldest son RHD Sorrel Jr, 21 was listed as farmer in 1880 Wharton Co, Texas Census.

In 1882 she turned over complete mgmt of plantation to 24 yr-old Douglass & could finally relax. She spent summer 1883 in Vineville w/ Marcial & Moxley then in Oct took Moxley to visit sis Camilla Sanford on rail line Southern Pacific had opened from New Orleans to LA that spring. Attended Moxley's wedding 10 July 1884 at Camilla's estate. Cf copies of her letters in Sorrel file which show her grief over this union & her reservations about Moxley's husb.

6 Dec 1884: WW Lipscomb releases Martha from all claims; all debts on plantation finally paid [ibid, vol D, p 81].

WIFE Martha Elizabeth (Bell) GORDON-475 Yr of Birth 1824

May 1887: As trustee for Martha & on her request, G. Moxley Sorrel sells "The Sorrel Place" in Vineville to L.E.Culver for $6500. According to MWF, "Altho Grandma Sorrel lived & managed the Sorrel Plantation in Texas, she retained her home in [Vineville] & spent part of every year there" until it was sold. She lived in the town of Wharton, not on the plantation, & had her own room at the Wicks home in Houston. MWF recalled how she would arrive every spring & fall w/ a seamstress to supervise the making of clothes for her grandchildren.

10 Dec 1894: appointed administrator of estate of sis Camilla Sanford.

18 Feb 1898: d in Wharton. In 1992 her furniture & many effects (including her husb's massive gold wedding ring) were in home of Katherine Knapp Sorrel in Wharton. Cf JMF notes 23-29 Oct 1992, p 8, for inventory. Since Katherine's death are presumably in possession of her sons John Gordon &/or Richard Knapp.

Her will (Probate Minutes Book D, p 574, Wharton Co Courthouse) dated 26 June 1894 states she is "now a resident of Los Angeles County, CA." She left her granddaugh Gordon (daugh of "Frenchie") $5, explaining "she has as much property as is necessary for her, &...I have in the past bestowed much care & expense upon her." Everything else she left in equal shares to 3 surviving children. Gordon Sorrel MacGregor unsuccessfully contested this will. [Copy of holograph original in Sorrel file]

Martha once wrote in the Day Book in which she entered her innermost thoughts, "All my life everything has gone wrong." In her 70+ yrs she did experience more tragedy than most: her 1st husb, her sis Sarah's 1st husb, 2 bros & her eldest son all died violent deaths; in addition she lost a little girl, another son, her father & her 2nd husb. Except for 1st husband, all d in 10 yr period which coincided w/ disorder of Reconstruction in which she was burdened w/ debts that threatened her plantation. In her bio of Moye Wicks, MWF sees all this as reason Martha was over-protective of her youngest child & only surviving daugh, Moxley. Before Moxley's wedding, Martha confided to her Day Book, "You were my joy, the very life of my life. How I shall bear to live on without you, I know not." [There is circumstantial evidence that Moxley did not reciprocate this devotion; i.e., she give 9 of her 11 children names beginning w/ "M" but no daugh named Martha. Cf Moxley's note #19 for details]

This smothering devotion to her surviving children also left its mark on her 2 sons. She wrote to her Aunt Emily Jordan, "There is not one girl in Macon that I would have either of my sons marry. I write truly." Her son Douglass did not marry until age 40; Marcial never married.

CHILD 1 - John Gordon "Frenchie" SORREL-476

B & d dates from manuscript record of Kappa Alpha Fraternity, Mercer Univ, sent to MWF in 1972 (xerox in file). This states b. in Macon. Cf mother's note [475] for evidence he was b. Americus. Named after his grandfather, John W. Gordon.

When RHDS took his family back to TX (date?), Gordon remained in Macon to attend "Zion School conducted by a Mr. Northern with his bros Frank & Douglass..." [Moxley Sorrel to MWF]

Gordon apparently got his nickname as a student at Mercer University in Macon, GA in 1873-74. It was so firmly established that he included it in his signature, & his fraternity bros (he was a charter member of Kappa Alpha) thought his name was "Gordon F. Sorrel." He was admitted as a junior at age 18, & his fluency in French allowed him to take this subject with the senior class. How did he become so fluent? Unless it was from his father, doubt anyone else in TX could have taught him. But could his father speak French? Known that RHD's next bro, Frank, had to get their father to "Frenchify" a letter to Martial Sorrel in Paris, so unlikely it was much used in Francis Sorrel's household. Could "Frenchie" have learned it from his grandfather Francis as a child? Could Martha have brought her children to Savannah to live during the War? "Frenchie" would have been 6-10 during those yrs.

Was at Mercer only 1 yr. Got excellent grades. Home at time of admission (Oct 1873) given as Bryan, TX (town just N of College Station in Brazos Valley). If he was w/ his family, what were they doing there, so far from Wharton, 2 yrs after RHD Sorrel died?

Sometime aft leaving college in 1874, Gordon married Martha "Mattie" Gordon, his first cousin. Mercer records say he was a planter when he was killed 31 Jan 1876 ("Feb" crossed out & 31 Jan written in). However, this doesn't jibe w/ posthumous b date of daugh Gordon, 17 Sept 1877 (on her tombstone). Following info suggests latter in error; i.e., she was prob b in Sept 1876.

Criminal Docket, District Court Records, Wharton County 1874-85 (in Wharton Co Museum) contains number of case entries from April 1876 to June 1880: State of Texas vs J.M.McCamley relating to "...affidavit being filed charging the defendant with the killing of Sorrel..." He was never brought to trial. Case dismissed 9 June 1880 because "death of defdt suggested." ["M" in script might possibly be "W." If so, most likely this was John Wheeler McCaml(e)y, half-bro of Fannie McCamly, "Frenchie's" mother-in-law & widow of John W. Gordon, Jr, "Frenchie's" uncle. JW McCamley was listed as 18 yr old law student in 1870 Census, Matagorda Co. This would make him abt 23-24 when murder commited.]

Cf note on RHD Sorrel re: burial place.

CHILD 2 - Francis Des Rivieres SORREL-477

B date & state from 1860 Census (age 3, b Alabama).

He d of jaundice at abt age 20. D date from bro Douglass' bio (in file) which states Francis d in Aug of same yr oldest bro was murdered. Letter below confirms this. Cf note on RHD Sorrel re: burial place.

Letter from Ms. LP Warren from "Kirkland" 25 Aug 1876 expresses sympathy to Martha Sorrel "for this 2nd terrible blow...It was a great shock to dear little Moxley. I didn't know that Marcial had heard of Frank's illness." Two blows must refer to death of Frances only 6 mo after murder of his bro "Frenchie."

CHILD 3 - Richard Henry Douglass SORREL Jr.-730

B & d dates from tombstone. B place 1860 Census.

"His primary education was obtained at Mount Zion, Hancock county [GA], & continued in the higher branches of learning at Kirkwood, DeKalb county, Georgia. The metal of which this young man is made was tested in his early youth & gave evidence of its high quality. His father [died] in 1870, leaving the widowed mother & 5 children. His eldest brother was murdered in 1876, & in August of the same year the next oldest brother died, leaving the widow & the remaining children to be provided for by [him]." [From "Personnel of Texas State Government," L.E.Daniell, Austin, 1889, pp 223-5 (copy in file) which lauded him as "one of the very youngest members of the House of Representatives on the 21st session of the Texas Legislature," elected by large majority.]

It goes on: "...he left school, returned home, & found his father's estate very much involved; but buckling down to business, & exhibiting great financeering capacity, he undertook the management of the farm, & in 6 years he has paid the debts of the estate, & in addition to that, purchased...a large & valuable tract of land adjoining the old homestead, & is now the largest planter of his county..." [This was 1889 acres contiguous w/ orig. Gordon Plantation he bought from Guy M. Bryan in 1886. RHDS Jr was 18 when he came home to help, 24 when he took over complete mgmt of plantation, 28 when debts completely paid, 30 when elected to TX legislature.]

4 July 1879: "In consideration of...$5000 of the money of my children, RHD Sorrel, Marcial Sorrel & Moxley Sorrel, which I have received & appropriated to pay & discharge encumbrances upon the property" Martha E. Sorrel conveys to RHD Jr total of 2609 acres "upon trust for use & benefit of [her 3 children]." There was still deed of trust on 700 acres to secure loan of $1733 from WW Lipscomb. [Wharton Co. Deed Book D, p 175] Legal papers in Savannah [per JMF] suggest money used by Martha Sorrel in paying off debts on plantation came from settlement of estate of Francis Sorrel, grandfather of her children. None of them had reached 21 in July 1879.

1880 Census, TX, Wharton Co, enum 6 June: Sorrell (sic), Douglas, 21, farmer, b GA [other members of his family were in Vineville; cf mother's note 475].

16 Feb 1885: sells bro Marcial undivided interest in tract of land "known as Sorrel Plantation...consisting of abt 640 acres" for $4895.81 [Wharton Co D/R vol H, p 593]. 27 Feb 1886 Marcial sells undivided interest in same parcel back to bro for same price. Transaction repeated again 18 Dec 1886.

Their mother willed all her property to RHD Jr, Marcial & their sis Moxley in 1894, & the 3 held undivided interest in plantation for rest of RHD Jr's life. However, RHD eventually concentrated on his personal property (total 1908 acres purchased from Bryan) while Marcial took over sole mgmt of original Sorrel Plantation. Because RHD d. intestate, his personal land became the undivided, jointly-owned property of his 3 surviving children.

He was (& still is) called "Donde" by his family.

HUSBAND Richard Henry Douglass SORREL-474 Yr of Birth 1825
WIFE Martha Elizabeth (Bell) GORDON-475 Yr of Birth 1824

CHILD 4 - Marcial SORREL-478

Ever other member of this family is named for easily identified person. Who was Marcial named after? Only known possibility is RHDS' 3rd cousin, 2x removed, Martial Sorrel. (Both names pronounced "marshall.") Martial's ranch in St Mary's Parish, LA, was twice as big as RHD's huge one, & it bordered main overland route from New Orleans to TX. Altho relationship between 2 families was distant, this is where RHD's grandfather Antoine had found loving refuge. If this was route Sorrels took on their frequent trips between GA & TX, they would certainly have been welcomed by Martial. In 1860 he was peak of his success. Thus seems reasonable that RHD would choose to give this name to his 4th son, who was born that yr. (Note 1st 2 sons named for their grandfathers, 3rd for his father.)

Cf note on bro Douglass (730) for complicated back-&-forth sales of undivided interests in plantationin 1885-6. At that time Marcial identified as "of Bibb Co, GA," which suggests he was living in Macon (Vineville?) when abt 25-6.

He never married. Cf. RHD Sorrel Jr note also for details of how lands were managed & eventually divided.

From obit in "Wharton Spectator" June 1952: "...[he] was the last surviving plantation owner in the county who operated his extensive land holdings in the manner of a planter of the Civil War period. He lived out his life in the traditions & customs of the Old South, attended to the end by his faithful negro servitors, who were direct descendants of the Sorrel slaves...Polished, cultured, he dealt with his fellow man with courtesy & consideration. His slight, straight figure, patrician features & curly snow white hair marked him as a gentleman of the old school..." Photo taken shortly before his d at 92 in file.

Obit also stated he served in Spanish-American War. JMF questions this.

CHILD 5 - Aminta Douglass SORREL-479

B date based on Rose Hill Cem record: "Minnie D. Sorrel" d age 5 yrs, 3 mo, 0 d & was buried 14 June 1866. Altho this record shows her nativity GA, sis Moxely told MWF both she & her sis were b on plantation in TX. JMF says "other evidence tends to place family in TX at that time & support this contention." But I'm not so sure. In Mar 1861, just b/4 Civil War, Sorrels could have been either in Wharton or Vineville. Note 2 next older children were b. in Vineville; Marcial only 8 mo. b/4! Cemetery record is our only documentation. Why not accept it?

She & her grandfather, John W. Gordon, are buried next to each other in UNMARKED graves in Rose Hill Cemetery. Cf Sorrel/Gordon/Sanford Notes, Part 4, pp 24-6, for account of JMF & JGF's search for these.

She d. of diarrhea (per cemetery index).

CHILD 6 - Moxley SORREL-19

HUSBAND	Richard Henry Douglass SORREL-474	Yr of Birth 1825
WIFE	Martha Elizabeth (Bell) GORDON-475	Yr of Birth 1824

For a complete acct. of her life, cf. the biography her dau, Marion Freymann, wrote of her father: "Moye Wicks, Lawyer, Author, Linguist, Scholar," typescript in JGF library.

MWF not sure if her mother's correct birthdate 1864 or 1865. Parent gave census takers ages 5 & 15 on 24 July 1870 & 4 June 1880, which is strong evidence she was b 6 Oct 1864. Birth in 1865 consistent w/ age 18 1/2 given on her wedding license, 9 July 1884. However MWF said her mother "always subtracted 1 yr" from her age, so she apparently did even in her teens. Moxley claimed she was Georgian by birth, but both above censuses give b place TX.

1871: after father's death & recovering from typhoid, sent from Plantation to convalesce in Macon. Initially stayed at Kirkwood (suburb of Macon or Atlanta?) home of Mrs. Warren, niece of Sen. Alfred Hold Colquitt & was tutored by his sis, Hattie Colquitt. Was living there when 2 oldest bros d. in 1876. In 1877 Moxley moved into mansion of now-Gov. Colquitt (Gov of GA 1877-82). In 1879-80 (age 14-15) went back to Macon to attend Georgia Female College (later Wesleyan). [Transcripts of her excellent grades, mostly 95-100, are in Wicks/Jarvis file. These were copied by MWF, who called it "Weslyn Women's College.] Later (1880-83?) attended Hollins (boarding school then, now College) in Roanoke, VA. Spent summers at family home in Vineville (near Macon). Apparently only rarely paid brief visits to Plantation in TX.

In Oct 1883 took train to LA (Southern Pacific's new Sunset Route from New Orleans to LA opened early 1883) w. mother to visit Aunt Camilla Gordon Sanford & Uncle Eugene at their estate, Sunnyside, in Fulton (later Santa Fe) Springs, CA. Here she made her debut at a ball 10 Jan 1884.

Late in 1883 she met Moye Wicks, at 29 a rising figure in LA's legal & business circles. [Cf her letters in Sorrel file re: courtship & marriage.] His proposal came "like a bombshell" to Moxley's mother. Martha's possessive feelings toward her daughter, understandable in a woman who had experienced so many tragedies, are reflected in a notation in her Day Book: "How shall I bear to live on without you, I know not." The marriage, originally planned for Vineville, was moved ahead & performed at Sunnyside at 10:58 AM, 10 July 1884. Witnesses: Moye's bro M.L. & bro-in-law A.M.Stephens.

On 1 April 1889 Eugene Sanford [771] in Santa Fe, CA, wrote to children of his bro Theodore in Jones Co, GA: "Moxley Sorrel lives here 10 miles from us. She has a boy & a girl [Moye & Madelaine], both pretty children. Moxley is very fat." [She was NOT pregnant at that time. Letter copied by MWF in her notes of 7 May 1969 in Gordon/Sanford file.]

Naming pattern of Moxley's children suggests she did not reciprocate her mother's devotion. 1 child named after Moxley; 1 had her maiden name; 1 child named after her father (Douglass); 1 after his father (Moye). Moxley's mother, grandmother & greatgrandmother all named Martha, yet, even tho 9 of 11 children had initial "M," none named Martha! In fact, other 7 children given names w/o family connections. MWF told JGF names "seemed to have just been pulled out of the air."

Moye usually referred to "the little black eyed darling of my heart" in diminutives & in terms of her relative youth. Yet she seems to have been strong. She certainly was physically, bearing 11 children in 22 yrs w/o incident & living to 93. Her income from the Plantation (she inherited 1/3 interest from her mother in 1898) was a considerable (if not major) contribution to the family's financial security. She tried to dominate her children; e.g., having all but the 2 oldest (Moye & Madeleine) confirmed as Roman Catholics along w/ her, apparently around the time Madelaine m. a Catholic in 1909. When MWF m. a man of whom she did not approve, she said she would never set foot in Marion's house--& never did.

After attack on Pearl Harbor in Dec 1941, many feared Japanese invasion of West Coast. Moxley, age 76-7, bought a .22 rifle & took bus to target range to practice her marksmanship! [Per MWF; possibly apocryphal.]

4 June 1956: Partition Deed signed by Moxley, Marcial Sorrel II & Frank D Sorrel of Wharton (sons of RHD Sorrel Jr), & Martha Sorrel Lack (daugh of RHDS Jr) of Bexar Co, TX, joint owners of 2208.8 acres [same land deeded by Martha Sorrel to son RHDS 4 July 1879; i.e., Lot 4 = 1280 acres; 1/2 Lot 3 = 1315 acres; part of prairie end of upper 1/2 of Lot 3 = 14 1/4 acres. JMF notes this adds up to 2609.25 acres!]. Parties agreed to partition in which Moxley assumes ownership of 1 tract [her will said this was 686.5 acres] & other 3 another tract, but w/ understanding that Frank will "continue his management of 2208.8 acres...herein partitioned...thru 31 Dec 1956 [Wharton Co D/R vol 289, p 530].

Cf. notes on Moye Wicks #18 for details of married life. After he d. in 1930 she lived on in LA until her d. 10 Mar 1958. She left a large estate, most in her share of Plantation. Does absence of will for Moye Wicks in Index of Wills, Superior Court Records, LA County Archives, indicate that all wealth was in her name? [This Index was NOT checked for anything in Moxley's name.]

Probate Records, Harris Co Courthouse, Houston, state she d intestate (altho possibility of will was raised at 1 point) & that she was resident of Harris Co. [Latter is outright lie. Cf JMF notes 23-29 Oct 1992, pp 17-23 (in file) for details of disagreements among heirs & legal manoevers that went on to 1966.] Estate at final division totalled abt $320,000.

HUSBAND - William Whann Mackall Brig.Gen.CSA-4256

Info: "A Son's Recollections of His Father," Wm W Mackall, Jr, NY, EP Dutton, 1930; "For My Children," holographic notes by Aminta Sorrel Mackall, 1891, typescript prepared by Henry C Mackall, cc in Sorrel file; "Recollections of a Confederate Staff Officer," GM Sorrel, citation in note #488.

B above "old bank of Columbia" where maternal grandfather was cashier. Son of Benjamin F Mackall VI (b Georgetown 14 Oct 1790; d "Langley" 22 July 1880) & Ann Marie Whann. Grandparents Capt Len Mackall & Catherine Beall of Georgetown. Moved to Cecil Co, MD, in childhood. Appt West Point 1833.

At West Point nicknamed "Little Corporal" b/c of short stature & fancied resemblance to Napoleon. Grad Class of 1837 & posted to artillery. Aminta's memoire details duties, mainly in FL & ME, (also routes & means of transportation among each) until posted to Ft Adams, Newport, RI, where they met.

Stationed at Ft Adams for yr aft marriage, then sent to Ft Barancas, Pensacola Bay, FL in 1845. (Aminta again described route by rail, boat & stage.) July 1846 sailed w/ his artillery co to mouth of Rio Grande to fight Mexican War. Aminta's memoire contains excepts from his letters detailing camp life, battles, etc. Took part in capture of Monterey. [1st installment of Aminta's memoire ends here; 5 more to be transcribed by HC Mackall go thru 1864.] In meantime, Aminta had returned to Savannah, their 2nd child being born en route [cf #4257]. (Aminta wrote "we had lost a son in August" 1845 at Ft. Adams.)

Stationed at New Orleans 1848-49; went w/o family. Served in Seminole War in FL in 1849. After service in Washington & Baltimore, stationed in San Francisco 1856-61 in Adjutant-General's Dept & reached rank of Lt.Col. Among his friends were Joseph E Johnston & Henry Halleck, who became senior generals on opposing sides in Civil War. By now had 5 more children but lost 3 as infants, 2 while in CA.

After Ft Sumter attacked & CA Legislature voted allegiance to USA, decided to return east but waited "until Maj Buell arrived to replace him." They sailed w/ some Senators & members of Congress. Bands were playing at the wharf when they left. They arrived in NY where they were met...by Uncle George Douglass" (bro of Aminta's grandmother). [Henry C Mackall letter 15 Nov 1995, in Sorrel file.] Moxley Sorrel wrote, "A Marylander, he was under no secession compulsion; but he had a fiery old VA father as well as his wife's Southern family to draw him there, w/ the reluctance so natural to those officers of feeling--proud of their little army, no raving State's right man, but wanting the Union, always the Union. It could not be otherwise." (p 71-2) They went to Washington, where he submitted resignation from Army to General Winfield Scott 3 July 1861. After visiting friends in MD, family crossed Potomac at Port Tobacco & went to Fredericksburg--last Southerners to cross river b/4 Union troops closed it off.

Following date of CSA service & direct quotes from Nat Archives Microfilm #161, General & Staff Officers of CSA.

He had "a tedious time in Richmond waiting for active service suitable to his abilities." As Marylander he felt "as if an exile in a foreign country." Was also "at odds" with Jeff Davis. [Mackall family lore is that he caught Davis cheating at cards when they were young officers.] Commissioned Lt.Col 26 Sept 1861 & sent to Bowling Green KY as Asst Adj Gen'l to Gen Albert Sidney Johnston commanding Western Dept (who had been his commanding officer on Pacific coast).

25 Mar 1862 promoted to Brig Gen & next day relieved Gen McCown, who was commander at Madrid, MO, & Island #10, a fortified island in Mississippi near NW corner of TN. Under attack when he arrived, it was bombarded for 3 wks by Federal gunboats then assaulted by Federal troops. He had been there only 12 days when he surrendered 7 April. He & 6000 CSA troops captured. He was imprisoned at Fort Warren in Boston Harbor until paroled (& presumably sent south) 27 Aug 1862. However, was still listed as POW until 14 Oct 1862.

14 Oct 1862 reported to Gen S Jones at Knoxville. Same day wrote 4 pg personal letter to "Dear Genl:" [No other address in letter, but was prob Gen Joseph E Johnston, old friend from Mexican War days.] Excerpt confirms family lore abt his being at odds with Jefferson Davis: "Gen Ripley told me that you had applied for me. If such the case, I need not say how gladly I would have gone had I been ordered...I understand that Genl. Lee asked that I should be sent to him as chief of his Staff but I do not think the President would want a 'General made by Beauregard' in that position."

27 Nov 1862 reported to Gen Forney, in command, District of the Gulf, at Mobile & on 14 Dec succeeded him in command. Letters from citizens of Mobile to authorities in Richmond asked he be promoted to Maj Gen, but nothing came of this.

17 Apr 1863 became chief of staff to Gen Bragg, commanding Army of the Tennessee. Moxley Sorrel mentions meeting him there in Sept 1863. In letters to wife Aminta, Mackall tells how he despises Bragg who, history has shown, was one of the Confederacy's worse generals. [Bragg & Mackall had been classmates at West Point.] This prob explains why Mackall was relieved 16 Oct 1863 & sent to Gen Joseph E Johnston. Johnston had been operating in Military Dept of TN, attempting to relieve besieged Vicksburg, & was still there even tho Vicksburg had fallen July 4. Altho CSA service record says only that he "reported" to Johnston, this is prob when Mackall's son wrote that he commanded "a rabble brigade of exchanged prisoners" under Johnston in Mississippi.

Johnston relieved Bragg 2 Dec 1863. Mackall became his old friend's chief of staff 27 Jan 1864 & served until Hood replaced Johnston 17 July 1864. Mackall was relieved a week later (24 July) w/o further orders. He joined his family, who were living at Vineville, suburb of Macon, GA, in house owned by RHD Sorrel. 3 days later, he wrote from there to Gen S Cooper, Adj & Insp Gen, Richmond, that he awaited "any communication you may make." 21 Sept he wrote again: "...Being anxious in a struggle such as this country is now engaged in not to be an idle spectator, I have the honor to apply to be sent on duty to the Field."

He was apparently ignored. 14 Apr 1865 (5 days aft Lee surrendered), he wrote on letterhead "Headquarter, Post & Defenses, Macon" to a captain about some stores to be attended to "should this place be seriously threatened." He signed "Brig. Gen. Comding."

20 Apr 1865, along w/ Gens EW Smith & Howell Cobb, surrendered Macon. 24 Aug 1865 sent appeal for amnesty fromBaltimore to US Atty Gen, noting that at end of war "I was in extreme south."

Then retired w/ his family to his father's home, "Langley," where he lived last 26 yrs of his life. "Langley" was cattle & sheep farm of 1200-1500 acres just across Potomac from Georgetown which was bounded by the river, Georgetown-Leesburg Pike & what is now the Capital Beltway (I-495). The main house, which stood near the Pike, burned in abt 1935. Estate was broken up for residential development in 1940s. JGF & JMF were driven thru it by Henry & Douglass Mackall in Sept 1995. The street names are all family names; e.g., Sorrel, Benjamin, Douglas (sic), etc.

WIFE - Aminta Elizabeth Douglass Sorrel-482

B date & place: father's handwritten record (cc in Sorrel file). D date from tombstone.

25 Apr 1839: 16 yr old Aminta stayed w/ Aunt Mary Moxley Fisher in Baltimore while attending school there [per JMF].

Summer, 1843, 20 yr old Aminta visited friend at Newport, RI, & saw from her window Lt Mackall riding by on horseback. Were m following spring at her home, then returned to Ft Adams (Newport). Lost her 1st son in Aug 1845, then followed husb to new station in Pensacola, FL. Was pregnant when husb shipped off to Mexican War in July 1846. Waited until bro RHD Sorrel came for her. While aboard a steamboat, apparently en route up Alabama River to Montgomery, she delivered 1st dau Fannie (Frances Sorrel). Then returned to father's home in Savannah. ["For My Children," holograph memoire by Aminta, transcribed by Henry C Mackall, cc of 1st of 6 installments in Sorrel file.]

Followed husb to various posts & back to CSA after Civil War started (cf his note #4256). In July 1864 was family reunited at home of RHD Sorrel in Vineville GA. Sorrels were in TX but others there were Gen Joseph E Johnston & wife & 2 daus of Sen Wigfall of TX. After war went to "Langley" & lived there last 39 yrs of her life.

15 Aug 1886 wrote Moxley Sorrel Wicks in CA: "We live plainly on a farm. I after the war have not been able to travel only having gone to Savannah my old home once in 20 years & that was to see (son) Will married (Mar 1882)...Your uncle & I were talking the other day about our 5 years in California & if we had money we would certainly go out there again. What changes we would see!"

Her father was stationed at Ft. Barancas, on Pensacola Bay, FL, when Mexican War declared July 1846. Francis Sorrel sent son Douglass to bring his pregnant sis Aminta home to Savannah. Aminta wrote in her memoire "To My Children:" "I had to wait until my brother came for me to go the Savannah. We started & your sister Fannie was born before the time on the steamer (illeg). I had to lay up in Montgomery Alabama for some weeks. I was treated with so much kindness." [Apparently they were aboard a steamboat going up the Alabama River to Montgomery, the head of navigation.]

She never m. Sorrel Bodman writes fond childhood recollection of "Cousin Fan." "I remember [her] as a most attracive elderly lady. She was about 5 feet tall, slim, white hair and lovely bright blue eyes, an aquilline nose, thin face. She was full of fun....She used to meet us at the train in McLean with her horse and buggy..."

CHILD 3 - Sallie Maffit Mackall-4260

HUSBAND - Alexander Claxton SORREL-490

"Clackie's" name is further evidence of the life-long friendship of Francois Sorrel and Alexander Claxton, even though both had been rivals for the same woman's hand when they were young. (See note on RIN 486, Rodolphine Claxton Sorrel.) Claxton returned the compliment. He named his only son Francis Sorrel!

When he entered Confederate service in Mar 1862 he reported to his bro-in-law Gen. Mackall. Posted as aide de camp to Gen Garnett, commanding Pickett's Brigade, 14 Sept 1862. Lt, 1st Georgia Regulars; promoted to Capt 3 Oct 1863. Served w/ Army of Tennessee in 1864, then returned to Army of Northern VA. Parolled as Capt, Bratton's Brigade, at Appomatox. [Compiled Service Records of Confederate General & Staff Officers, Roll 233, National Archives]

His bro Moxley's "Recollections of a Confederate Staff Officer" (cf G. Moxley Sorrel #488 for citation) contains info that supplements (but does not entirely agree w/) above. Abt 1860 he & Moxley joined Georgia Hussars, Savannah volunteer militia company. Aft Sumter, both went to Richmond "to get into fray." (Clackie was 20.) He joined Georgia unit, Troup Artillery, & was corporal when, thru efforts of bro Frank (who had served in "Old Army" & had important connections) he r'c'd 2nd lieutenant's commission in 1st Georgia Regulars, whose officers were appointed by Governor of GA. It was in G.T.Anderson's Brigade. (This was apparently abt time of 1st Battle of Bull Run.) Served w/ this regt thru Battle of Fredericksburg (Dec '62), by which time it had lost so many men it was sent back to GA to recruit more. It fought in Battle of Olustree (FL) 20 Feb 1864, after which Claxton was promoted to captain in Adjutant-General's Dept & ordered to return to VA & report to Bratton's SC Brigade.

As part of Longstreet's 1st Corps (of which bro Moxley was chief of staff), Bratton's Brigade moved to TN in 1864 & fought in battles around Chattanooga. 1st Corps returned to VA & fought thru all battles leading up to siege of Petersburg. Moxley recounts shaking his hand b/4 Bratton attacked Battery Harrison (strong Union position N of James River), "a forlorn hope" in which casualties were heavy but C. untouched. In another attack (on fort held by Union Gen Kautz), Claxton's horse was killed "almost under Gen Lee's eyes." Some days later, Lee met Claxton on road & said he was sorry C had lost his mare. C told Lee he had got another one, to which Lee replied, "Yes, 2 it seems." C did not understand till he discovered new mare was in foal.

After War, he & bro Moxley went into business together but this failed. They were executors of father's estate 1870-81. Claxton seems to have shared his bros' inability to manage money. Claim against Francis' estate in 1879 mentions promissary note for $1250 Claxton gave in July 1869 which had never been paid & went on to say he "is now & has been for 4 or 5 yrs insolvent."

He finally found position w/ C&S Bank in Griffin, GA. D. "after short illness" [handwritten Sorrel family notes in file].

HUSBAND	John Irvine STODDARD-4350	Yr of Birth
WIFE	Agnes Eugenie SORREL-491	Yr of Birth 1844

HUSBAND - John Irvine STODDARD-4350

WIFE - Agnes Eugenie SORREL-491

On 30 May 1864, at Battle of Bethesda Church, near Petersburg, a 23 yr old brigadier general named Edward Willis was mortally wounded. Dying, he asked to see Moxley Sorrel, saying it was his "sister whom I am betrothed." In his "Recollections," Moxley wrote, "He died on my arm, but not before whispering loving messages for home & to that one he bore on his brave heart to its last beat." However, name of sis was not mentioned! Only 2 youngest sis could have been engaged: Agnes, who was 20, & Annie, who was 18. Since romance not mentioned in Wainwright genealogy's extensive bio of Annie, I think Agnes most likely.

Cf "Remarks by Michael Willis at Laurel Grove Cemetery, 23 April 1995" (in Sorrel file) for complete story. Willis family lived across Madison Sq from Sorrel home. Edward was senior at West Point in 1861. He may have been buried originally in Sorrel plot b/c his father was in CSA medical corps in 1864. Memorial stone is in ground in front of Sorrel Mausoleum in Laurel Grove Cemetery in Savannah, but his is buried elsewhere.

Notes

HUSBAND - Auguste Adrien SORREL-6665

He was only 2 yrs old when his father died. Like his older bros, he was raised in Paris under bad conditions & prob w/ little supervision. Because of this, this descendant of notaries was illiterate. As an adult, he was barely able to write his own name.

At age 15 he was a pastry cook. In 1848, age 17, he enlisted for 2 yrs in the 11th Regt. of Light Infantry & was discharged in Marsaille in 1850 w/ a good conduct certificate. He was living in Paris in 1862, again a pastry cook, when he m. his neighbor Julie Suzanne Esseline, a hat maker.

They had only 1 child. He d. 2 yrs after she was born, age 34.

All info on this family from R's Histoire.

WIFE - Josephine Suzanne ESSELIN-6666

She was daugh of Joseph Thomas Esselin, a locksmith, & Anne Suzanne Feltz.

After her husb's death, she m. 2) Louis Charlin on 10 Oct 1871. At that time, she was a hat maker & clothes trimmer.

Charlin raised little Adrienne Josephine, who was only 2 when her father died, as his own daughter. Thus ended any connection with the Dauphiné & any memory of the Sorrel family. (See her note #6667.)

CHILD 1 - Adrienne Josephine SORREL-6667

She was only 2 when her father died, & her step-father raised her as his own daugh. Yet her actual guardian was her father's half-bro Henri Joseph Louis Renouard, who knew nothing about the Dauphiné. The only remaining source of Sorrel family memory was her grandmother Françoise Philippine Février (6664), who was Henri's mother. Not known when latter died.

Adrienee Josephine was a lace-maker & embroiderer.

HUSBAND John Gordon "Frenchie" SORREL-476 Yr of Birth 1855
WIFE Martha Amy (Mattie) GORDON-723 Yr of Birth 1856

HUSBAND - John Gordon "Frenchie" SORREL-476

When RHDS took his family back to TX (date?), Gordon remained in Macon to attend "Zion School conducted by a Mr. Northern with his bros Frank & Douglass..." [Moxley Sorrel to MWF]

Gordon apparently got his nickname as a student at Mercer University in Macon, GA in 1873-74. It was so firmly established that he included it in his signature, & his fraternity bros (he was a charter member of Kappa Alpha) thought his name was "Gordon F. Sorrel." He was admitted as a junior at age 18, & his fluency in French allowed him to take this subject with the senior class. How did he become so fluent? Unless it was from his father, doubt anyone else in TX could have taught him. But could his father speak French? Known that RHD's next bro, Frank, had to get their father to "Frenchify" a letter to Martial Sorrel in Paris, so unlikely it was much used in Francis Sorrel's household. Could "Frenchie" have learned it from his grandfather Francis as a child? Could Martha have brought her children to Savannah to live during the War? "Frenchie" would have been 6-10 during those yrs.

Was at Mercer only 1 yr. Got excellent grades. Home at time of admission (Oct 1873) given as Bryan, TX (town just N of College Station in Brazos Valley). If he was w/ his family, what were they doing there, so far from Wharton, 2 yrs after RHD Sorrel died?

Sometime aft leaving college in 1874, Gordon married Martha "Mattie" Gordon, his first cousin. Mercer records say he was a planter when he was killed 31 Jan 1876 ("Feb" crossed out & 31 Jan written in). However, this doesn't jibe w/ posthumous b date of daugh Gordon, 17 Sept 1877 (on her tombstone). Following info suggests latter in error; i.e., she was prob b in Sept 1876.

Criminal Docket, District Court Records, Wharton County 1874-85 (in Wharton Co Museum) contains number of case entries from April 1876 to June 1880: State of Texas vs J.M.McCamley relating to "...affidavit being filed charging the defendant with the killing of Sorrel..." He was never brought to trial. Case dismissed 9 June 1880 because "death of defdt suggested." ["M" in script might possibly be "W." If so, most likely this was John Wheeler McCaml(e)y, half-bro of Fannie McCamly, "Frenchie's" mother-in-law & widow of John W. Gordon, Jr, "Frenchie's" uncle. JW McCamley was listed as 18 yr old law student in 1870 Census, Matagorda Co. This would make him abt 23-24 when murder commited.]

Cf note on RHD Sorrel re: burial place.

WIFE - Martha Amy (Mattie) GORDON-723

Mattie's marriage to her first cousin, Gordon Sorrel, is said to have created a rift in the family. They are said to have eloped, prob in 1875.

HUSBAND John Gordon "Frenchie" SORREL-476 Yr of Birth 1855
WIFE Martha Amy (Mattie) GORDON-723 Yr of Birth 1856

It's a poignant memoire of the Reconstuction Era that both her father and her husband were killed, apparently in ambushes.

Cf bro John W Gordon's note [4521] for division of father's land w/ other 2 sibs (her as Mrs RB Huston)

Other marriages:
15 Jan 1878 Robert Bell HUSTON-725 MRIN: 203

CHILD 1 - Gordon SORREL-724

Gordon was born posthumously. Gravestone b date 17 Sept 1877, but since quite sure father murdered 31 Jan 1876, b date must be 1876.

24 Nov 1879, when she was 3, her mother & RB Huston, her guardian, filed claim against estate of Francis Sorrel for her as an heir of RHD Sorrel thru her father Gordon. This was over 1879 promissory note for $1250 Claxton Sorrel had given & never repaid. This was 4 days aft Martha Sorrel had filed identical claim (cf her note for details). Claim was dismissed. This would not be only time she contested a family will (see below).

She grew up in household of step-father RB Huston. Letter from grandmother Martha Sorrel to Moxley Wicks 14 Aug 1886 (when Gordon abt 10) indicates her lot was difficult: "I have just received a letter from Mattie & she writes as if she wanted Gordon sent home this winter. This will be most unfortunate for the child. She is beginning to learn & to feel the importance of learning. I have had to teach her to articulate & that has required no small degree of patience & perseverance. I have her now nicely fixed up in clothes of all kinds, & am resolved that the Huston children shall never wear any of Gordon's clothes, not even those she has outgrown. Hitherto, Mattie has always taken a portion of the clothes I would send Gordon for the others, saying they were more than she needed, & it saved her so much sewing. And yet poor little Gordon had to pay $240 per year for board & clothing--& was the only nurse Mr. Huston's children ever had." [Orig letter in JMF files]

Marion Wicks knew her as "Cousin Gordon" when Marion was a child, believes she was crippled by arthritis. Cf note on her grandmother, Martha Sorrel, for evidence in her will that Gordon was not well-liked when she grew up. Gordon & McGregor unsuccessfully contested this will.

After her divorce from McGregor she m. a Mr. Crabill. No details known.

HUSBAND - Richard Henry Douglass SORREL Jr.-730

B & d dates from tombstone. B place 1860 Census.

"His primary education was obtained at Mount Zion, Hancock county [GA], & continued in the higher branches of learning at Kirkwood, DeKalb county, Georgia. The metal of which this young man is made was tested in his early youth & gave evidence of its high quality. His father [died] in 1870, leaving the widowed mother & 5 children. His eldest brother was murdered in 1876, & in August of the same year the next oldest brother died, leaving the widow & the remaining children to be provided for by [him]." [From "Personnel of Texas State Government," L.E.Daniell, Austin, 1889, pp 223-5 (copy in file) which lauded him as "one of the very youngest members of the House of Representatives on the 21st session of the Texas Legislature," elected by large majority.]

It goes on: "...he left school, returned home, & found his father's estate very much involved; but buckling down to business, & exhibiting great financeering capacity, he undertook the management of the farm, & in 6 years he has paid the debts of the estate, & in addition to that, purchased...a large & valuable tract of land adjoining the old homestead, & is now the largest planter of his county..." [This was 1889 acres contiguous w/ orig. Gordon Plantation he bought from Guy M. Bryan in 1886. RHDS Jr was 18 when he came home to help, 24 when he took over complete mgmt of plantation, 28 when debts completely paid, 30 when elected to TX legislature.]

4 July 1879: "In consideration of...$5000 of the money of my children, RHD Sorrel, Marcial Sorrel & Moxley Sorrel, which I have received & appropriated to pay & discharge encumbrances upon the property" Martha E. Sorrel conveys to RHD Jr total of 2609 acres "upon trust for use & benefit of [her 3 children]." There was still deed of trust on 700 acres to secure loan of $1733 from WW Lip- scomb. [Wharton Co. Deed Book D, p 175] Legal papers in Savannah [per JMF] suggest money used by Martha Sorrel in paying off debts on plantation came from settlement of estate of Francis Sorrel, grandfather of her children. None of them had reached 21 in July 1879.

Their mother willed all her property to RHD Jr, Marcial & their sis Moxley in 1894, & the 3 held undivided interest in plantation for rest of RHD Jr's life. However, RHD eventually concentrated on his personal property (total 1908 acres purchased from Bryan) while Marcial took over sole mgmt of original Sorrel Plantation. Because RHD d. intestate, his personal land became the undivided, jointly-owned property of his 3 surviving children.

He was (& still is) called "Donde" by his family.

WIFE - Sarah Massey HARRISON-731

Called "Sallie." Daugh of Burr Albert Harrison & Rebecca Bolling.

He also took over management of Sorrel Plantation when his Uncle Marcial d. in 1952. When Marcial's estate was settled in 1957, both properties were pooled & split 3 ways among Frank & his 2 sibs (Moxley Sorrel having received her 1/3 share of the Plantation, 686.5 acres, in 1956). Combined w/ 2 tracts specifically willed to him by Marcial, Frank received total of 1670 acres.

When he d. he left his estate to 2 surviving sons, Marcial III & RHD III, & to Glen Sorrel & Viginia Ann Sorrel Jones, both of Austin, children of his son Frank Sorrel II, who had d. yr. before.

CHILD 3 - Martha Elizabeth SORREL-735

According to Frank Sorrel Jr, his Aunt Martha was "apple of her father's eye." Sent her to finishing school in Nashville. When she returned to Wharton she met Dick Lack.

She left her 1/3 share of Plantation to nephew Frank, also her house. At her funeral, minister recalled visiting her home, which he referred to as "Martha's Haven." This name is now on entrance gate of home where Frank extended hospitality to Freymann bros in Oct 1992.

WIFE - Therese PISON-4224

CHILD 1 - Charles KLEIN Colonel-6658

He had 5 children. "Le colonel Charles Klein" attended funeral of his sis Odile (6659) 25 Nov 1998.

CHILD 2 - Odile KLEIN-6659

He father was in the garrison at Embrun when she was born. She was 3 1/2 when he was killed in action.

She studied in Lyon & Grenoble, becoming a specialist in Italian history & geography. She started teaching in 1931. In 1943 she was nominated to be an instructor in "l'Ecole de formation des cadres," apparently a school operated by the traitorous Vichy French regime of Marshall Petain. [France had fallen to the Germans in 1940. They occupied the northern part of the country, but the southern part was run by Petain, under close German supervision.] Odile refused this position & went to Grenoble in an organization called "The Youth of Isere."

When American-French armies invaded southern France in 1944, Odile joined the 1st Moroccan Sharpshooter Battalion of the 4th (French) Division & served w/ it as a "social assistant" (en qualitie d'assistante sociale) for 18 mo as it fought its way thru Alsace & into Austria. Apparently at least part of her duties included comforting the sick & wounded. She was the ONLY woman in this unit! She left the army in 1946.

In 1947 she returned to Grenoble & founded branch of the Catholic Aid Society (Secours Catholique) devoted to the poor, particularly their housing. This grew into several organizations for which she received national recognition. In 1967 she received the Order of Merit & in 1981 the Cross of a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor.

She was interested in Sorrel genealogy, & it was she who transcribed the hand-written "Notes sur la Famille Sorrel," a copy of which is in file.

She never married. All above info from obit in Sorrels in Dauphine file.

CHILD 3 - Jean KLEIN-6660

He had 4 children. D. date based on fact "Mme Jean Klein" attended funeral of Odile (6659) w/o mention of her husb.

CHILD 4 - Andre KLEIN Father-6661

"Le pere Andre Klein" attended the funeral of his sis Odile (6659) on 25 Nov 1998.
